Many times, Christian friends ask, “Why is it so difficult for our Jewish neighbours to see the truth in Christianity?”

Ask yourself the question, “Could it be that historical experiences have caused them to question the reality of Christ in the lives of those who claim to be His followers?”

The following list is not exhaustive - but we believe is representative of the persecution of the Jews from 70 AD until now.

70 AD JERUSALEM DESTROYED: 1,100,000 Jews were killed and 97,000 taken into captivity.

115 MESOPOTAMIA, EGYPT, CYRENE AND CYPRUS: Jews rebel. Jews and Romans inflicted many barbaric atrocities on each other, causing the death of several hundreds of thousands of Romans and Jews.

132 - 135 THE BAR KOCHBA REBELLION: (Bar Kochba was a false Messiah). Caused the death of 500,000 Jews; thousands were sold into slavery or taken into captivity.

135 ROMAN EMPEROR HADRIAN: commenced his persecution of the Jews. Jerusalem established as a pagan city. Erection of a Jupiter temple on the temple mountain (Moriah) and a temple to Venus on Golgotha. Jews were forbidden to practice circumcision, the reading of the Law, eating of unleavened bread at Passover or any Jewish festival. Infringement of this edict brought the death penalty.

315 CONSTANTINE THE GREAT: established ‘Christianity’ as the state religion throughout the Roman empire; issued many anti-Jewish laws.

379 - 395 THEODOSIUS THE GREAT: expelled Jews from any official state position or place of honour. Permitted the destruction of their synagogues if by so doing, it served a religious purpose.

613 SPAIN: Jews persecuted. All Jews who refused to be baptised had to leave the country. A few years later those who remained, were dispossessed, declared as slaves and given to pious ‘Christians’ of position. All children 7 years of over were taken from their parents and given to receive a ‘Christian’ education.

640, 721, 873 BYZANTINE EMPIRE: Jews forcibly converted to Christianity.

1096 GERMANY: Bloody persecutions of the Jews at the beginning of the First Crusade. Along the cities of the Rhine River alone, 12,000 Jews were killed. They were branded second only to the Moslems as the enemies of Christendom.

1099 JERUSALEM: Jewish community massacred by Crusaders.

1121 FLANDERS (NOW PART OF BELGIUM): Jews driven out. They were not to return, not to be tolerated until they repented of the guilt of killing Jesus Christ.

1130 LONDON: Jews had to pay compensation of one million marks for allegedly killing a sick man.

1146 SPAIN: Jews forcibly converted to Christianity.

1146 - 1147 GERMANY: Renewed persecution of Jews at the beginning of the Second Crusade. The French monk, Rudolph, called for their destruction as an introduction to this Crusade. It was only because of the intervention of Emperor Conrad who declared Nuerenberg and a small fortress places of refuge for the Jews, and that of Abbot Bernard of Clairvaux, that the result was not quite as devastating as at the time of the First Crusade.

1181 FRANCE: King Philip banished the Jews from his domain. They were permitted to sell all movable possessions, but the immovable such as land and houses reverted to the king. Seven years later he called the Jews back.

1189 ENGLAND: At the coronation of Richard the Lionheart, unexpected persecution of the Jews broke out. Most Jewish houses in London were burned and many Jews killed. All their possessions were claimed by the Crown. Richard’s successor alone, relieved the Jews of more than 8 million marks.

1215 ROME: At the IV Lateran Church Council, restrictions were issued against the Jews.

1290 ENGLAND: Edward I banished the Jews – 16,000 left the country.

1298 FRANCONIA, BAVARIA AND AUSTRIA: Persecution of Jews. The Nobleman Kalbleish alleged that he had received a divine order to destroy all the Jews. 140 Jewish communities were destroyed, and more than 100,000 Jews were mercilessly killed.

1306 FRANCE: King Philip the Fair banished the Jews – 100,000 left the country.

1320 FRANCE: 40,000 shepherds dedicated themselves for the Shepherd Crusade to free Palestine from the Moslems. Under the influence of criminals and land speculators, they destroyed 120 Jewish communities.

1321 GUIENNE, FRANCE: Jews were accused of having incited outlaws to poison wells and fountains in the district. 5,000 were burnt at the stake.

1348 THROUGHOUT EUROPE: Jews were blamed for the plague. In Strausberg 2,000 Jews were burned. In Maintz 6,000 were killed in the most gruesome fashion, in Erfut 3,000 and in Worms 400 Jews burned themselves in their homes.

1355 TOLEDO, SPAIN: 12,000 Jews were massacred by a mob.

1349 - 1360 HUNGARY: Jews expelled.

1370 BRABANT: Jews blamed for having defiled the ‘Host’ (wafer used in the Mass). The accused were burned alive. Again all Jews were banned from FLANDERS, and until the year 1820, every 15 years a feast was kept to celebrate the event.

1391 SPAIN: Further persecutions. In Seville and 70 other Jewish communities, Jews were cruelly massacred and their bodies dismembered.

1394 FRANCE: Jews banished again.

1420 TOULOUSE, FRANCE: Jewish community annihilated.

1421 AUSTRIA: Jews expelled.

1453 POLAND: The King was persuaded by the Franciscan monk, Capistano, to withdraw all rights of citizenship from the Jews.

1478 SPAIN: The Inquisition was directed against the Jews.

1492 SPAIN: Jews banished – 300,000 refused to be ‘baptised’ into the Church of Rome – left Spain penniless. Many migrated to the Moslem country, Turkey, where they found tolerance and a welcome.

1495 LITHUANIA: Jews expelled.

1497 SICILY AND SARDINIA: Jews expelled.

1497 PORTUGAL: Jews banished. King Manual, generally friendly to them, under pressure from Spain, instigated forced baptism to keep them. 20,000 Jews desired to leave the country. Many were ultimately declared slaves.

1502 RHODES: All Jews forcibly converted, expelled or taken into slavery.

1516 VENICE: First Ghetto established.

1540 NAPLES: Jews banished, then 10 years later, from Genoa and Venice.

1593 VATICAN STATE: Jews banished by Pope Clement VIII.
